

Ms. Mozelle M. Longstreet

March 18, 1945 - February 12, 2019

Mozelle Marie Longstreet was the older daughter of the late Oliver and Marie Longstreet. She was born in Jackson, TN on March 18, 1945 and transitioned from this earthly home on February 12, 2019. She is preceded in death (just five months ago) by her beloved younger sister Hazelle Garner. Due to the early death of their mother, they were reared primarily by Joe and Elnora Wilms (grandparents) as well as, their father (Oliver), Rufus and Lillie Belle Cole and the extended Hampton family.

Mozelle was a lifelong Methodist and was baptized at Wesley Chapel UMC. In her earlier years, she was involved in several aspects of the church. As an adult, she was active in the local congregation, participated in United Methodist Women and the wider church.

She was educated primarily in Jackson, TN. She attended Washington Douglas Elementary School and graduated from Merry High School in 1963. Mozelle received a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Lane College in 1967 and went on to earn her Master's.

Mozelle taught at Gadsden High School. She also taught at Jackson State Community College where she retired.

All through her life, Mozelle was a faithful caregiver to her family members and friends. She was especially known for her loving devotion to her sister, Hazelle Garner, and her nephew Lonell Durell Bond.

Mozelle is survived by a loving family and many friends. Survivors include her nephew, Lonell Durell Bond; great-niece, Tiffany; special cousins, Frank Odem, Flossie McCully and Marilyn Jeanes and a host of family and friends.
