“ Mrs. Nell was a pillar of this community and has known my family especially the Fuller family for decades as she knew my grandmother Thelma Fuller and Fuller family from their days at Salem MBC and when my grandmother passed May 5, 1995, Mrs. Nell did all of the flower arrangements and spray. On behalf of the Douglas & Fuller Family you have our deepest condolences and sympathy at the passing of a remarkable woman. She will be truly missed but her memory will live on in every story, memory shared, even flower arrangements remembered.

“ I was one of Ms . Nell caregivers she was such a wonderful Lady . I enjoyed and loved caring for her. Melissa once said that I could get her to do some things she couldn't . Every Tuesday morning I would stop at McDonald's and get her a sausage egg & cheese Mac griddle . She truly loved them . Melissa I was spoiling her even my husband would make sure that I had money for her Mac griddle on Tuesday morning ❤️ . My heart was so broken when I found out she had passed away . Melissa & Titus praying for you guys and rest of the family . 💕 Love you

“ Mrs. Nell was an extraordinary woman who shared her musical talents, professionalism and business in the Jackson community for decades. She had words of wisdom and the most radiant smile to give others. There were times I called her night or at the last minute with an order in which she would provide without hesitation. On behalf of Macedonia Church we acknowledge the multitude of floral arrangements, corsages and beautiful poinsettias she provided for so many years. Mrs. Nell is remembered for her love, dedication and support to everyone she encountered. Many prayers are extended to her family.

Nell was a wonderful Christian woman who shared her gift of speaking, singing, and playing the piano throughout all of the churches in the Jackson area and beyond.

She was the first African American woman to own a successful business, Nell Huntspon's Flower Shop & Printing Company, and Tuxedo Rentals with the help and support of her family.

Her beautiful and gentle spirit will be greatly missed. 🙏❤️

“ Nell, as she was affectionately called, was a mentor to many. She was always there with a listening ear and ready to give advice to whoever needed it. I met her in 1980 and she was a treasured friend for many years. She was one of Jackson's Community Treasures and you could always depend on her. A florist by trade, she produced many beautiful floral arrangements and was always willing to go above and beyond the call of duty. There were many times, I had to call her at the last minute and say Nell, I need your help like yesterday. She would take care of me and send me on my way. She will truly be missed. Fly away and take your well-deserved rest. I love you. RIH.

I treasure many memories of Mrs. Nell, her musical talent, business ethics, her service to the Jackson community, my family and Macedonia Baptist Church. She created a multitude of arrangements, corsages, etc. I could call her @ night with an unexpected order in which she fulfilled. She was a mentor, dear friend who truly cared about people and their families. Mrs. Nell met everyone with such a beautiful smile, love and kindness. Thank you for being a part of my life.
