No words can ever describe how sorry I am for your loss.

May the Father in Heaven comfort the Stitts family in their time of grief.

There is a process to grieving. No one grieves the same. Take it day by day.

Love you all,

“ He would always pick on me if he saw me out. Especially if we was sitting up at Foodrite on the benches. He'd wave and say "come here a minute" I say " what are you doing over here today? "He'd say waiting on someone to buy me a coke". lol he sure was a mess. There wasn't a time he saw me he didn't speak. He will be missed
