

Rev. Robert Lewis "Bob" Stewart

July 27, 1946 - November 7, 2025

Robert "Bob" Lewis Stewart was born July 27, 1946 to Viola and Sylvester Stewart. He lived a spiritual and active life. He was a product of Madison County schools.

He graduated from Lane College and was a member of the Lane College Choir. He earned a master's degree from the former Memphis State University, now the University of Memphis.

Bob taught business at Lemoyne Owen College. He also participated and graduated from Leadership Memphis.

He was an ordained minister of the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church. Some of the churches he pastored were Grady Chapel, Moody Chapel, Featherstone Temple, Washington Chapel, and the African American Holiness Church.

He was an entrepreneur and landowner in Oakland, TN, and owned and operated a local daycare for many years. He was a true equestrian who loved Tennessee Walking Horses.

He was a trained boxer in his early days, and last but not least, he was a devoted member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. He lived a beautiful life with no regrets.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his devoted wife of 53 years, Brenda Fouse Stewart; his daughters, Tameka Stewart and Alissa Wade (Mendel); one son, James Stewart (Caroline); two grandchildren, Kevon Wade and Kylan Stewart; three godchildren, Dorian and Ryan Bailey, and Dr. Shayla Murray; two siblings, Rev. James Stewart (Delores) and Earline Stewart; and a host of nieces and nephews whom he loved dearly, including other family and friends.
