Ron and I as young kids grew up on fuller street Ann Arbor, Michigan. We played marbles, cowboys and Indians, hide and go seek, and various sports together. We remained friends throughout the years. I will miss his visit back home and our phone talks. Peace and comfort to the family. Don Simons

“ Ron was a dear friend and I was devastated to learn of his passing. He was such a Godly man of integrity and wise counsel, and we shared many talks about the goodness of God and our shared compassion for helping others. I was so happy to see him at church on Sunday and I will miss my friend so much! My deepest condolences are extended to Cornelious, Rolanda, and the rest of his family. Roslyn Wilson
