“ Oh my sweet sweet friend, Big San. Sandra & I met when we were attending adult high school & workin towards our GED's. We both kinda kept to ourselves & out of all the others drama. We started talking one day & became really good friends. We just clicked. Two single moms just doing our best for our babies. She was so kind & thoughtful & quite protective of me at school. She was a big sister to me, auntie to my 3 babies. They love them Big San. She was tough as nails, but if she liked you then you know that you had loyal woman in your corner. She would do anything for you, but don't you dare get shady with her. lol. If you know her then you know what I mean. She was a hard worker. She did what she had to do to take care of her babies. She loved those babies and grand babies. My kids & I speak of her all tha time. My grand babies have heard some stories of Mine & Sandra's times together. We have laughed & cried & plotted together. Over the years we may not of talked all the time, but when we did it was like we hadn't missed a day. I loved her dearly & her babies too. Thoughts and prayers are with all of her family & friends. She was a extraordinary woman & will be missed by many.

Rest in peace my dear friend/sister. You got me through some sad hard times just by being there & encouraging me to stay strong & stay on track to achieve my goals. Some wondered how we were so close but we didn't care. No more suffering, you got those beautiful angel wings now hun. I will always love & remember you & our times spent together.

Love ya much,

Tonya (Aka- as that sweet little Charles would say "that little white woman) lol

“ I will forever hold all the talks, the laughter, & the advice you gave me. I watched you fight for a long time. You was the blueprint of sisterhood. You always told me it was okay to fall as long as I got back up. After this hit it's hard to get up but i know I have to. I'm glad you're not going through anymore rainy days and you are finally rejoicing with our mom's and your sister. God gave you the one strength of a bull to finish your mission. When he saw fit he placed you back in his garden. Forever my sister keeper in life and afterwards. Love you Sandra Lynn and more
