

Ms. Sherry "Doll" Hardin

April 5, 1972 - September 4, 2023

Sherry "Doll" Hardin was born in Jackson, Tennessee on April 5, 1972, to the late Almeter Shaw and Bo Eugene Hardin.

On September 4, 2023, she peacefully transitioned to heaven. She accepted Christ at an early age and joined the St. John #2 Baptist Church. She attended the public school of Madison County, Tennessee. She was a graduate of West High School class of 1990.

She was a woman of many words and actions. She expressed her love through her giving her spirit by being a true giver, caretaker, and grandmother.

Her heart was pure, she was a straight shooter and you never had to worry about how she felt about you, her actions showed.

But if she allowed you in her space received a very loving, warm heartfelt spirit full of life.

She was the best cook that a child or person could ever ask for. She loved to cook for everyone who came across her path. We are going to miss your cooking and your selfless acts of giving.

She was preceded in death by sisters: Brenda Hardin, Mary Hardin and Bobbie Jean Hardin and one brother: Randy Hardin.

She was the mother of three children: Tanisha (Kenneth) Nobles, Lester Hardin and Joe Bates. She was also a mother to Isley Hardin, Amand Hardin, Travis Hardin and Makevia Hardin; one sister: Laverne Hardin; three brothers: J.W. Shaw, Terry Hardin and Jerome Hardin; and a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, a favorite cousin: Mitchell Martin, other relatives and friends.
