“ I will love you forever. You believed in me when no one else did.. You would listen to me read my poetry about men and laugh so hard when I was pasturing you came and visit my church. You understood me when other did not.. You told me to push my dreams even if other thought nothing would never happen..but most of all you told me to follow my Creator and not people..So to you Thera step into the dew of your morning...Walk into your dayiight that holds no more labor...I celebrate you home my friend, my kin,...one of my heros. this is Gloria Jean Cole saying take your flight....
