“ I know the Horton and Bond families have saddened hearts because of losing Vanessa in death way too soon. So I wanted to share this beautiful scripture where our heavenly father, Jehovah, (Psalms 83:18), promises us that he is going to do away with man's greatest enemy, death. Rev. 21: 4; "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. " God's kingdom that Jesus taught us to pray for at Matt. 6: 9, 10 will bring about these wonderful promises, including the resurrection. For more comforting scriptures please visit: <http://bit.ly/1K38EFt>. It is my prayer this scripture will give you comfort in your grief. If you feel up to contacting me, my email address is: myranj@centurytel.net

“ *To the Horton and Bonds Family,
You're in my thoughts and prayers at this time of loss.'
Please find comfort in knowing to be absent in the body is to be present with the Lord.
The last time I saw Sis . Vanessa was at the Youth Rally in Brownsville. As always, she was kind, smiling, helping and spreading the Love of God!
I know you will miss her, but be assured you'll see her again.
Peace and Love,
Sis. Willie Alexander, Memphis, TN*

“ *An attempt to comfort when it seems so much is lost...
Do not greave for me now, for now I am free.
I'm following the path God laid for me;
I took his hand when I heard him call;
I turned to him and left it all.
I could not stat another day to laugh, to love, to work or play; Task left un-done must stay that way.
If my parting has left a void, then fill it with memories of love and joy;
a friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, oh yes these things too I will miss.
Be not burdened with hearts of sorrow, and know that I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life was filled and I've savored much, good friends, good times and the love of so much.
Perhaps my time seems all to brief but please don't lengthen it now with prolonged grief. My father has called me home and now I'm set free. R.I.P Sister.*

“ Mrs. Vanessa was one of the nicest ladies that I have met in my life. Every time I saw her she was always upbeat and had a smile on her face. I had the pleasure of teaching Preston and she always thanked me for what I did for him.

To the family, you all are in my thoughts and prayers. Know that Mrs. Vanessa's life certainly blessed the life of others. I have not met one person that has anything negative to say about her. If our lives can touch others like hers did, then our living will not be in vain.

God Bless You All!!
