

Mrs. Vergie Mae Brown

April 17, 1939 - November 3, 2024

Vergie Mae Brown was born on April 17, 1939, in Madison County, the daughter of the late Idella Hardin and the late Walter France.

At an early age, Vergie confessed hope in Christ and joined Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist Church, where she was a faithful and dedicated member until her health failed.

She retired from Devilbiss after many years of employment there. She was a hard worker, dedicated employee who never missed a day of work. She was loving and had a great sense of humor. She loved to cook, bake, collect recipes, and use her coupons.

She loved flowers and her motto was, "Give me my flowers while I am living so I can see and smell them." She took pride in keeping her yard and flowers looking good. She kept her yard neat and in the fall raked her yard every day. Her love for her family was so genuine.

She had the most sweet spirit and cared for her family and others and always showed compassion. She was the nurturer, always taking care of somebody.

She was a caregiver to all of her sisters, who preceded her in death: Ruby Briley, Annie Ruth Newble, Lillian Newsom, and Prenticeteen Walker. She was also preceded in death by her two children, Jerry Bond and Annie Bond Ellison; and a special nephew, Hansom Lee Davis, Jr. She was preceded in death by two great-grandchildren, Terrious Reeves and Jasan Jackson.

She is survived by her daughters, Doris Turner (Jesse) and Gloria Jackson (Jay); nine grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren; three special nieces, Pamela Scott, Tonya Wells, and Lee Ann Newble; a special nephew, Eddie Newble; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

“ Aunt Vergie was an angel that walked amongst us. She was the one that cared for every member of her family. She was there for my grandmother (Ruby Briley) and my grandfather (Willie). Each time I came to TN to visit my granddaddy, she was always there even at the veteran's facility where he stayed. The same goes for my mother (Betty Davis Easley). She was always at her house when I visited or called. She cared for her and her dog, Midnight. He knew she would bring him food and ice water. During her last days when other people have forgotten my mother, Doris Ann would hand her the phone, and she would ask how I and my mother was doing. Unselfish love. I will miss her calls the most. She was so funny that we always ended our phone call laughing saying "I love you". She also brought joy to my brother (Hansom Lee Davis Jr). They would call each other at 6 am in the mornings. Now it is your time to be cared for. I am so glad that you showed me that there are people who really cared for others in this world. Spread your wings and rest in peace. I love you Pam Scott
