“ My name is Richard Bryant. I worked with Walter at Sears for almost 30 years. Walter was a great ambassador for Sears working in delivery. Sometimes this was the final contact the customer had with Sears and Walter always left a good impression. He was not only a coworker but also he was my friend. RIP

“ I remember that broad and smiling face of Mr Bonds. He bore a slight resemblance of my father. Met him in the 1970s, his family and over the years, participated in many reunions. I secretly regarded him as my 2nd Dad. One particular memory involved his visit to my home in Mphs during a time of grief and sadness over the loss of my spouse. As he prepared to leave, he grabbed my hand, pressed a bill in it and hugged me. I cried softly with him reassuring life would be okay. My heart is sad, no tears, just filled with notion he's with God
Rest in peace 2nd Daddy.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I worked with Mr. Walter at Sears many years ago and I just loved him. He was such a great man and very kind to me. I worked in the Hub Office and would schedule deliveries for him and he always told me he didn't have to worry about his route if I did it for him. I had such great respect for Mr. Walter and I know he will be missed by many.
