Weltha Mae Sutton was born on September 11, 1933, in Sebastopol, Mississippi, to late Ed and Louisa Johnson. She was the seventh of thirteen children born to their union.

She transitioned from her earthly life to her heavenly home Sunday, October 19, 2014, at the Mission Convalescent Home surrounded by family, friends and excellent nursing staff.

She received her education at E.T. Hawkins High School in Forest, Mississippi. She was a devoted wife, mother, homemaker and excellent cook. She also was an exceptional caretaker for children in her community and many relatives.

She professed hope in Jesus Christ at a very young age at the Mt. Carmel Baptist Church. During her life she also resided in Chicago, Illinois, before moving to Jackson, Tennessee. She united with Home Missionary Baptist Church in the 1980's. She was very active on the Mothers Board Sunday School and weekly Bible Study until her health no longer allowed her to attend.

As a resident at Mission Convalescent Home, she participated in weekly church services being known for her songs of praise and prayers. She was known for caring for her roommates even though it wasn't necessary, but that was part of her caring nature.
