

Mr. William T. Johnson

February 15, 1954 - June 25, 2024

On February 15, 1954, God blessed the late Robert Lee and Frances Taylor Johnson with a baby boy, William T. Johnson, of Stanton, Tennessee. He was reared in a God-feared home. He transitioned to his external rest on Tuesday, June 25, 2024, in Jackson, Tennessee, at the age of seventy.

He accepted Christ at an early age. But in 2018, he rededicated his life back to Christ lead by his daughter, Sandra Houston, and Elder Lue Murray. He attended the school system in Stanton, Tennessee.

He was best known for his work in agriculture and mechanical skills, his jokes, long conversations with family and friends, and cooking his famous sweet potato pies.

He was a man of great character, charisma, and Sway. He always made sure his med fingernail and wardrobe was tight. But it wasn't just about looking good; he strongly believe that ethics and grace of the inner man were important.

Awaiting his arrival in addition to his parents, those preceding him in death, are his grandson, Jonathan Gayden, Jr.; great-grandson, Patrick Clark, Jr.; and his siblings, Glady Somerville, Carrie S. Savage, Margaret Dancy, Elijah Johnson, Raymond Johnson, Bobby Johnson, Geneva Douglas and Ruby Lillard.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his only devoted and dedicated daughter, Sandra (Tony) Houston of Jackson TN; one brother, Aaron Johnson of Stanton, TN; one granddaughter, Kaswayla Gayden of Jackson, TN; one grandson, Derrick Love, Jr., of Jackson, TN; two great-grandsons, Brayden Bobbitt and Elijah Batchelor, both of Jackson, TN; two children he raised as his own, Albert Lee Richardson, Jr., of Brownsville, TN, and Tina L. (Alex) Smith of Jackson TN; one granddaughter, Sherita Douglas of Memphis, TN; a special nephew, John L. (Doris) Leavy, whom he help reared; three dear friends, Loutisha Richardson, Jimmy Ware, and Willie Douglas; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.
